Customer Reviews

I play the piano at a couple nursing homes for church services based out of my church. I already had volume II, and decided that it was time to get some new songs. These are the classics that were sung in churches and played on gospel sings on the radio, etc., when the elderly were younger. They really like these songs. Many are also familiar to me, and they are fun to sing and play.

This is a good collection of older southern Gospel songs. I got it for one song in particular that I was having trouble finding in print elsewhere. I have been pleased with the other songs in the collection as well.

I love these hymnals. There are lots of great songs and they include the chords for easier playing. It arrived in excellent shape in the time frame expected.

This hymnal is great! I have several of the other volumes and I enjoy them all. All aspects of ordering was enjoyable - shipping was fast.
