Customer Reviews

TPNY has done it again with FULL POTENTIAL GMAT: Sentence Correction Intensive. Not content just to provide drills -- though drill they do -- authors Sapir and van Hoek link your learning efforts to the most important component of all: what's going on inside your head. With their Full Potential Method giving you the insights you need to control your strategy, and a hundred pages of real-world examples to guide your tactics, FULL POTENTIAL GMAT provides the tools you need to take your GMAT with confidence, clarity and concentration. Everyone wants to reach their full potential, but not everyone can figure out how. With TPNY's Full Potential Method, it's easy to achieve a deep understanding of yourself and your mental landscape, and then, in the powerful space created by that understanding, attack the sentence correction section of the GMAT with ease. In fact, I would hazard to guess that anyone seeking to apply this method to just the sentence correction section will experience benefits throughout the GMAT landscape -- indeed in any testing situation or other high-stress environment. The experiences of my clients bears this out: TPNY has been the difference between a good GMAT and a great GMAT for them.

Authors Bara Sapir and Karen Van Hoek may be the two most best GMAT verbal tutors alive. This guide is by far and away the most advanced study aid available for the sentence correction section of the GMAT. We highly recommend this guide to all test takers seeking the 700+ scores the top business schools like to see.

Bara Sapir is a well known educator in the test prep industry. Her specialization in the field is based around test anxiety relieving, with years of direct experience teaching, taking, and writing for the test. Her work is an absolute must read and has been proven to generate results.

I've just reached about half way through the Kindle version of the book, and have to say am quite impressed. I think it's quite unlike anything else in the market!
