"I was looking for something that would help my very distracted son when it comes to writing and spelling. I had heard about these books so I looked them up, I joined the Facebook page and began to see how many homeschoolers loved them. So I decided to purchase this one. I have never been so happy. My son loves the pages of the book, he loves walking around the house to find words to spell. This book has changed the way I think about homeschooling, it has given me a little more freedom and creative ideas. One of the best parts of this book is in the back there is a create your own comics, my son is a super big fan of comics so he is looking forward to working on these pages. Great for struggling learners." - Mani This spelling method is best for 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th grade, but with mom's help it can be used for children as young as five years old. the activity book can be used for Dyslexic children and children who are hyper-active, have ADHD or Autism. Struggling learners thrive with this method! There are 180 activity pages so that you can use one page per day during the school year. The method used is a unique approach for teaching visual thinkers who are artistic and intelligent, but may not be doing well with phonics and memorization. It has been said that if children can no learn the way we teach, we must teach the way they learn. That is why this book is so different from other spelling books! This book uses very creative ways of teaching children how to become naturally good spellers. Do not worry about correcting your child's work until they get to the part of the book where they are writing their own short stories. By reading their short stories you can identify all the words that the child has trouble spelling. You can teach them those words by having them write each one down seven times in different colors. Do not make any marks or corrections on the child's book, this is his or her spelling journal, and should not be damaged by grades, or marks. Celebrate everything your child shows you in this journal, and remember learning to spell is like learning to talk. Your child will have some very "cute" ways of spelling in the beginning, and all you have to do is play the COLOR GAME with those words, once the child finishes this journal. As the child works through the journal they may start by spelling some things very "creatively" don't worry! When you read their stories at the end of the book you will see that many spelling problems have "self corrected" because of all the spelling games and activities in this book. Spelling can be fun! The Color Game: There is no need to give a child random spelling lists. Just find out what words the child misspells and have them write their word 7 times on the Fun Page. Use a different color each time.

Learning to spell has never been this fun before! Here are some images of the inside...

Fabulous book!! I won this book just before Christmas. My 9 year old that struggles with reading , writing, and spelling loves this book. She is learning so much. I like the progression in the book . It has the child coloring , reading , searching the house for words so they start seeing words around them and noticing the spelling and expands their vocabulary by having the child describe a picture. This book really taps into the child's senses. On the pages Bake & spell the student can read the poem, color and copy words. When the child is done those pages. Go to the kitchen and bake a cake then of course eat it. So many options . Love it!

Length: 4:14 Mins

We really have loved all of these offerings from The Thinking Tree! This will be a great spelling method for my son. We are currently doing Rod and Staff and it is going ok. I really like how Thinking Tree does spelling. See my video to see inside and see if it is right for you!! I received this at a discount in exchange for my honest review. I honestly love it!

I've been using this for my 8 year old boy who has a hard time focusing on his school work and would have a hard time with a 'traditional' spelling list. He has no confidence in spelling right now, but I've started seeing some improvements. I'm excited to see what he's able to do by the end of the book. I've also been using it for my 6 year old daughter. She's just starting to read and I'm hopeful the extra help now will make spelling easier for her in the years to come. She really enjoys doing the coloring part and has a lot of fun searching the house for words.

My girls love their new Spelling! The coloring pages and no test approach where you learn the words correctly, in context, is wonderful. This book was a bit young for my 11 year, but still had enough words she needed to review, and she is loving it

I have a somewhat advanced 9 year old, we did not do a specific spelling curriculum this year. I decided to add this journal to strengthen what she already knows, I love the create your own comic book section! I love that she doesn't have to rewrite the spelling words over and over.

Length: 3:13 Mins

This is one of my favorite spelling books from The Thinking Tree. I bought this one directly from The Thinking Tree publishing company. I like that it has the child look for words around the house or in books rather than have them memorize list of words with a test on Friday. This book is great because it gives the child some "down" time, coloring and illustrating which helps them remember what they are writing. I'd have my child look for the words first than illustrate. There are also pages to make comics and creative writing toward the end of the book.

I really liked the beginning of this with the stories, coloring, and writing the spelling words. The rest of the book, however, is finding words around the house and writing them down. Not enough stories and reading and not enough repetition of the spelling words for them to learn them.
